State Senator Opens Campaign for Congress, Claiming Support of Labor Organizations.

The first gun in the congressional fight in this district was fired yesterday afternoon, when representatives of a number of labor organizations met in Murphy's Hotel and formed the Wendenburg Workingmen's Club to support the candidacy of State Senator Louis O. Wendenburg, of Henric, in the Democratic primary to be held on June 16, several months early, in order to clear the decks for the State-wide prohibition election in September.

The Wendenburg club organized with Frank H. Jones as president and W. F. Miller as secretary. The following members of various labor unions of the city were named on the executive committee: E. C. Hoane, William Reardon, C. J. Hughes, J. S. Cloter, H. Hoffman, O. L. Koch, J. E. Reynolds, J. H. Sharp, F. Kruck, N. J. Smith, John A. Stiles, W. W. Savage, W. W. Lowry, H. M. Cousins, J. A. Hallahan, J. B. Clendenen, J. C. Clements, R. S. Craig, J. C. Brock and H. E. Baker.

The club, after organization, adjourned to meet again on Saturday afternoon in Murphy's Hotel. In the meanwhile each member of the executive committee is delegated to secure three men from each of the labor organizations in the Central Trades and Labor Council to be added to the executive committee.

Senator Wendenburg has been counsel for the local labor unions for the last twenty years. He has served prominently in the settlement of several large strikes in recent years, two being adjusted amicably and three being fought to a finish.

MONUMENT AT ARLINGTON

Confederate Organizations Plan to Attend Unveiling.

Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, is preparing to attend in a body the unveiling of the Arlington Monument at Arlington, the former home of General Robert E. Lee, on the Potomac River, just opposite Washington City. The unveiling will take place on the afternoon of June 4 at 3 o'clock. It is probable that the various local Confederate organizations will join in running an excursion to Washington on the date of the unveiling.

Dog Bites Little Girl.

Eight-year-old Ruth Davis, who lives with her parents at 324 South Pine Street, was bitten on the leg last night by a dog owned by P. A. Davis, of 513 South Pine Street. The animal was bitten by a Patman's dog, and its head will be sent to the Department of Agriculture at Washington for examination to determine whether it was suffering from rabies.

Young Man Drinks Laudanum.

In a moment of despondency, it was said, Morris Conley, twenty-two years old, swallowed a small quantity of laudanum yesterday afternoon at his home, 521 Louisiana Street. He was rendered emergency treatment by Dr. A. L. Weinstein, City Hospital ambulance surgeon, and removed to the Virginia Hospital. It was said that he would recover.

BOY SCOUTS RELAY
LETTER TO PETERSBURG

Make Record Time With Communication From Mayor Ainslie to Mayor Cabaniss.

Ninety members of the local troops of Boy Scouts relayed a message yesterday from Mayor George Ainslie to Mayor Robert Cabaniss, of Petersburg. The trip, covering a distance of twenty-two and two-fifths miles, was made in two hours and twenty minutes, by the winning team.

The boys started from Capitol Square at 1 o'clock, and the message was placed in the hands of Mayor Cabaniss at 3:29 o'clock. The message follows:

Office of the Mayor,
Richmond, Va., May 2, 1914.

Hon. Robert Cabaniss, Mayor of Petersburg.

Dear Mr. Mayor—I am taking advantage of a relay of Boy Scouts of Richmond Council, from Richmond to Petersburg, to express to you my personal greetings and good wishes, and those of the people of Richmond to the people of Petersburg. This will be handed you by the first scout reaching Petersburg.

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) GEORGE AINSLIE, Mayor.

The message was relayed in the course of a race between two teams of forty-five boys each. The Blues won Ralph Dudley having the honor of handing the message to Mayor Cabaniss.

Coal Movement at Norfolk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., May 2.—The movement of steam coal over the piers of the three railways hauling this commodity to tide at Hampton Roads was, during the month of April, at the rate of nearly 12,000,000 tons a year, or about high water mark. The dumpings, in tons, of the various roads was as follows:

Norfolk and Norfolk Railway, 26,148; Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, Newport News, 267,267. Total, 1,559,983 tons.

Keep Their Marriage Secret.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., May 2.—Announcement was made here today for the first time of the wedding of the celebrated Clark Mays and Miss Rose Elizabeth Schultz, which was celebrated here on October 27 last, till ceremony was performed at the parsonage of Centenary Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Chandler. The only witness was the daughter of the celebrant. The bride is employed as a stenographer, and after her marriage retained her position until today. The groom is in the service of the Norfolk and Western Railway, and they have taken a residence in Madison Heights.

Governor Stuart to Speak.

Governor Henry C. Stuart will speak to colored people this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Fifth Street Baptist Church colored.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the Hustings Court to E. Frank Morison of Bradenton, Fla., and Hulda Elizabeth Thomas, and to Harold Charles Wainman and Julie O. Goodie.

Rush to Pay Poll Taxes.

Yesterday was the last day on which the payment of poll taxes to qualify for the November election could be made, and many who had been negligent or careless in paying their taxes came forward at the last moment. The offices of the City Treasurer, the clerk of the Hustings Court and the Commissioner of Revenue remained open several hours after the regular closing time, so that there would be no cause for complaint among those who had neglected to pay before.

RICHMOND COLLEGE BOYS
WIN TWO FELLOWSHIPS

Russell Gordon Smith and A. B. Bass Honored by Northern Universities.

President F. W. Boatwright, of Richmond College, received announcement yesterday of the success in other institutes of learning of two Richmond College graduates.

To Russell Gordon Smith, who took the bachelor of arts degree in Richmond College in 1911 a fellowship in the study of sociology has been awarded by Columbia University, in New York. Mr. Smith is a son of R. M. Smith, a broker of this city. After graduating from Richmond College he taught for a while in Miss Ellet's School, and then went to Columbia University, where he specialized in English, history and sociology.

To A. B. Bass, of Pittsylvania County, who graduated from Richmond College with the degree of A. B. three years ago, Colgate University has just awarded a traveling scholarship, which entitles him to $500 and to the privileges of continuing his studies in any American institution that he pleases. Both young men are well remembered at Richmond College, and the honors that have come to them are exceedingly pleasing to the Richmond College faculty.

Has Owned Westover Sixteen Years.

Mrs. Clarice Ramsay, owner of Westover, the famous James River plantation, against whom suit has been brought in the Charles City Circuit Court for alleged slander by Hugh T. Harrison, is not a native of California, as was stated at the time the suit was filed, but was born at Westover, Somerset County, Md. She is the daughter of the late J. Henry Risley. On her mother's side, Mrs. Ramsay is a Sears, of Massachusetts, and a member of the Society of Colonial Dames, Colonial Governors and the Chilton Club of Boston. She has owned and lived at Westover about sixteen years, with her two sons and daughter.

THAT TIRED FEELING IN THE SPRING

That tired feeling that comes to you in the spring, year after year, is a sign that your blood lacks vitality, just as pimples, boils and other eruptions are signs that it is impure; and it is also a sign that your system is in a low or run-down condition, in which it will be easy for you to contract disease if exposed to it.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old standard tried and true blood medicine relieves that tired feeling. Get Hood's to-day.—Advertisement.
